

1,651 people experiencing homelessness were housed in Nashville from September 2022 through August 2023. This is a 20.5% decrease from last year (September 2021 through August 2022.)

Source: De-duplicated Nashville–Davidson County HMIS data including permanent housing exits and move-in dates from Emergency Shelters*, Transitional Housing, Street Outreach, Rapid Rehousing, Permanent Housing, Coordinated Entry (CE), and Domestic Violence Coordinated Entry (DV CE)****.

*This data does not include information from the Nashville Rescue Mission.

**DV CE data only includes the heads of household's information, and may under-represent the number of people fleeing domestic violence who were housed.

- More people were housed in August 2023 than in any month since January 2023.
- 128 people have moved into housing with a Housing Choice Voucher this year so far, which is more than did that in all of 2022.
- Safe Haven Family Shelter housed 57 people in August.
- The number of people engaged in street outreach programs had been decreasing for 5 months straight, but it increased by 123 this month.
